

Place

The Kalaunu is sold everywhere in Hama'Lu. In each shopping street in each of Hama'Lu's communes, there is a store which specializes in either the making of the Kalaunu or in customizing it to your own liking.

There are more stores selling the headpiece in the capital, Platina, and the island for meditation because those are mostly visited by tourists.

When important holidays or festivals take place, a lot of stands sprout up selling the Kalaunu and other things.
